and by those wounds we are healed.

Peace be with you.

Hymn #119 – The Strife is O'er, the Battle Done

Prayer of Confession in Response to God's Grace

Good and gracious God, we are creatures of dust, ignorant of your revelation, misunderstanding your life, death, and resurrection among us, needing forgiveness. We repent of our failure to give as you have given to us. We beg your mercy for our fallen world. We seek your Word, that we may live with the faith of Jesus. Be our solace in this life and always. We ask this as your own children, holy and incomplete. Forgive us and lead us. Amen.

Welcome Lynn & Sharon Kandel

The Mission Focus for the month of April is South Sudan.

Today we welcome to NWPC two of our mission partners from Africa, Lynn and Sharon Kandel. Together they serve as the point persons for global partners in Sudan, Ethiopia, and South Sudan, US constituents, mission co-workers, Presbyterian World Mission and Presbyterian Mission Agency staff. Sharon is the primary lead for Ethiopia, and Lynn is the primary lead for Sudan and they are both deeply engaged in South Sudan. They work with the three Critical Global Initiatives (CGIs) addressing the root causes of poverty particularly as they affect women and children, sharing the good news of the Gospel, and engaging in ministries of reconciliation amidst cultures of violence. South Sudan has multiple and diverse needs so a variety of skills are required to help rebuild it. Sharon and Lynn are blessed to work with people in South Sudan who have an assortment of talents and abilities. They say 1 Peter 4:10 helps them appreciate the gifts of every person. The verse says: Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received. “This means a lot to us because we all come with different gifts, abilities, and education and we all are needed,” Lynn says. “We pray that this helps us to not judge others because of their differences but rather to welcome them.”

Lynn and Sharon have been in Juba, South Sudan for two years working primarily with the South Sudan Education and Peacebuilding Project and moving into the Regional Liaison position felt very natural to them both. With Sharon having grown up in Ethiopia there was already a connection and heart for that country. For South Sudan, this meant taking a slightly different role in working towards peace and being an encouragement for the people of this country but it felt right since they have already established relationships with so many people.

If you would like to meet the Kandels and learn more about their work, please stay for lunch (pizza and salad) following worship in the Social Hall.

Adult Sunday School Class: Mere Christianity April 8 - May 13, 9:15-10:15 am – Room 214

In this eight-session video group study, facilitated by Brad Walters, you will discover why Mere Christianity by C.S. Lewis is one of the most read and beloved Christian books of all time. But seventy years later from when it was first delivered on radio, what relevance does it have to our world today? Eric Metaxas and a variety of Christian leaders – including Philip Yancey, Alister McGrath, Devin Brown, Paul McCusker, Douglas Gresham, and others – help us understand the timeless message of C. S. Lewis in fresh ways for a new generation.

Although this study began on April 8th, it is not too late to join. The class meets in Room 214. You may order a copy of CS Lewis's book "Mere Christianity" or the study guide, "Discussing Mere Christianity Study Guide: Exploring the History, Meaning and Relevance of C.S. Lewis's Greatest Book" by Devin Brown from Amazon.com or other book retailer.

The next Friday Morning Bible Study will be Friday, April 20, at 10am in the Craft Room at Shenango on the Green. Ken Philips is in charge, focusing on Old Testament and New Testament references to heaven and hell.

---

Sweet Survivors meets April 26th, 5pm, at Ryder's Restaurant. Please contact Carole Welch if you plan to attend, cwnwpa@live.com or 724-946-8836.

IT'S NOT TOO EARLY!
