WORSHIP NOTES

If you are a guest today, we pray God will bless you through your presence with us. Please sign the pew pad, including contact information, so we may welcome you.

Assistance for worship is available including large print bulletins found in the bulletin racks, and personal audio receivers that provide sound amplification at the “sound booth” at the back of the sanctuary.

For Children:

To protect the health of our children and caregivers in the nursery, please keep your child with you if he/she is not feeling well or has been ill in the last three days. Thank you for your attention to this request during cold and flu season.

1. Welcome to our nursery care during the church service, located through the side doors of the sanctuary to the left of the pulpit area, Room 212. Please note the space was thoughtfully designed for children 0-3 years of age. If your child is older than three, please refrain from including him/her with this age group. Many thanks. Providing childcare today are Amanda Sheffler and Alasdair Camlin.
2. Children Church, Room 213, is a creative and developmentally appropriate worship experience for children age 4 to 4th grade. Jill Postema, Sharon Meyer, and Janine Stuart will be taking turns teaching.
3. Children’s Worship Bulletins for ages 3-6 & 7-12 are located at the ramp door.

The 4 to 6-year-old child care room is open to welcome any child that age who would like to participate in age appropriate, supervised play/social time during the church service. It is in Room 215, right next to the NWPC Preschool classroom. Today’s caregivers are Pam Zackal and Emily Arblaster. If your child would like to start there, then go to Children's Church when it is being held, a caretaker is happy to escort him/her to the CC room. Just let the caregivers know your plan.

FREE BOOKS: Following worship stop and look – and take home - a used book or two (or three) from the tables in the Ligo Room.

THANK YOU to all who contributed money to help 5 WAHS seniors pay for their Senior Trip this year. Our church met the entire amount needed. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

JANUARY MISSION FOCUS: Burundi

Five Talents is a Christian charity that provides savings programs, financial literacy and business training for those in need in developing countries. They make use of a form of savings-led microfinance. Five Talents' programs serve people regardless of religious background, and they aim to transform lives through economic empowerment, creating long-term solutions to poverty in the developing world, including Burundi, the flag on display this month. The organization's name was inspired by the Parable of Five Talents from the Bible. The parable illustrates that every human being has dignity and God-given resources that can be used for good. By providing access to financial services and business training, Five Talents empowers the poor to develop and use their resources and talents.

2024 ALTERNATIVE GIFT VALENTINES program begins next Sunday, January 28th and continues through Sunday, February 11th. Order forms are in the bulletin today. A Mission Committee representative will be in the Ligo Room starting next Sunday.

SALT is engaging Heather Cox Richardson's recent book, Democracy Awakening, Notes on the State of America. The author crafts a "... narrative, explaining how, over the decades, a small group of wealthy people have made war on American ideals. By weaponizing language and promoting false history they have led the nation into authoritarianism -- creating a disaffected population and then promising to recreate an imagined past where those people could feel important again. She argues that (restoring) our country starts by remembering the elements of the nation's true history that marginalized Americans have always upheld. Their dedication to the principles on which this nation was founded has (repeatedly) enabled us to renew and expand our commitment to democracy." SALT convenes via Zoom at 9:15. All are welcome. Contact Jim Hines at jhines55@hotmail.com for a link.

Margaret Trautman will be celebrating her 90th birthday on January 26th. Please write Margaret a note or send her a card to help her celebrate. Her address is:
2045 Frank's Parkway, Room 242, Uniontown, OH 44685

Though unable to attend our service in person, Margaret listens to or watches weekly.
